

CHANGE is in the air!

They say the only constant is change, and at Wellwood, there is lots of change in the spring air. But, with change comes opportunity!

The Henderson redevelopment is underway, and our space has been reduced as a result. The staff and volunteers are making accommodations to allow for the reduction in office and storage space, and we appreciate your patience with us as we strive to continue to meet your needs as clients and volunteers.

Parking is proving to be a tremendous challenge for all, and we caution that short-term parking just to “run in” to drop off or pick up items has been eliminated. Just call the main office before you arrive, and we will try to meet you at the new front entrance to the hospital to receive or deliver the items you require. Day-use parking is in short supply, so you are encouraged to allow extra time to seek out a spot. We apologize for the inconvenience. (For many, bus transit may be the most convenient...and good for the environment too!) In the long run, we know that our hospital-based site will be all the better in the long-term, well worth the short-term accommodations that we must make.

The construction at the new community-based site for Wellwood at Chedoke is scheduled to begin in August. We hope that we will be opening the doors at that bright and wonderful new space by January – a new beginning at the new year.

We will make every effort to keep you posted on all of the changes and developments. In the meantime, feel free to check our website or ask at the front desk for an update!

Our “Flying Pigs” return

Wellwood’s marathon dream team has returned from “The Flying Pig” in Cincinnati and their attempt to raise $40,000 in celebration of our Executive Director’s 40th birthday! There is still time to donate (online until July 7 using a direct link from www.wellwood.on.ca, or in person/by phone through the main office.) The final total will be announced in the next issue of Wellwood Connections.

Quilts for sale

The many hands that come together over Wellwood’s quilting program have created incredible works of art, several of which are available for purchase. Those interested may contact the main office for information on which quilts are available and the price. All proceeds will go directly to Wellwood programs.

Hillfield Strathallan a valuable community partner

Wellwood has enjoyed a longstanding and unique relationship with Hillfield Strathallan College (HSC) thanks to our founders, the O'Connor/O'Connell family, whose son, Eamonn, and daughter, Caitlin, are both HSC Alumni. On February 5, HSC presented Wellwood with two cheques; one representing proceeds from the "Candygrams for Vince" campaign, in memory of HSC alumnus Vincent Fazari, and the other from family, friends, guests and alumni in attendance at the annual December Carol Service. Wellwood is grateful to HSC for its continued support and partnership.
